Kiwanis hosts presentation on help for troubled children and teens

On April 5, Kiwanian Kaili van Waveren (pictured), who serves as the traumatic grief specialist for Frederick Health Hospice, gave a presentation on Camp Jamie. Camp Jamie is a hospice program that provides a special opportunity for grieving children and adolescents to come together to talk about their feelings related to a death of someone special, and helps them receive peer support and learn coping skills for dealing with those feelings. Camp Jamie was founded in 1991 by Hospice of Frederick County and continues to add beneficial programs. It recently enlarged its scope to include adolescents and provide opportunities for the parents of campers to network with each other. More information about Camp Jamie may be obtained online at frederickhealthhospice.org. Kiwanis Club of Frederick usually meets at 12:15 p.m. on Tuesdays at Elks Lodge No. 684, located at 289 Willowdale Drive in Frederick. For more information about membership, email Lauri Cutting at Lauruscut@gmail.com.

Douglas Propheter, the new executive director of Heritage Frederick was the guest speaker at the April 26, 2022 meeting of the Kiwanis Club of Frederick. With great clarity he presented the mission and activities of Heritage Frederick which previously was known as the Historical Society which has been in existence for 130 years. Doug shared how important it is to save and preserve the things we do as an organization to preserve our own of history.
