Middle School Most-Improved Student Recognition Dinner

The Club sponsored the 31st Annual Middle School Most Improved Student Appreciation night at the Elk's Club on April 25. Students, families, school principals, counselors and teachers attended to recognize their student's progress during their time at middle school, which was often challenged by the fact that schools were closed for a period of time during the pandemic. Many club members and guests attended the banquet as well. Colette Baker, Community Service Chairperson, coordinated the event and photos were taken by club member Dave Maloney. Members Phoebe Barreto, Carla Thompson, Richard Cutting and Laurie Cutting also assisted with the sign-in table and with presenting the awards. A good time had by all!

(Sitting L to R): Andrew Barth (Oakdale Middle School), Daniel Ireland (Urbana Middle School), Marcus Cameron (Crestwood Middle School), Emerald Daley (Frederick Classical Charter School), Rowen Williams (Brunswick Middle School), Mason Scott (Thurmont Middle School), Henry Waldo (Monocacy Valley Montessori School), Brenden Preudhomme (New Market Middle School). (Standing L to R): Jose Cruz Pantoja-Suarez (Walkersville Middle School), Daniel Corbett (Middletown Middle School), Ko'eem Burrell (Gov. Thomas Johnson Middle School), Marlee Williams (West Frederick Middle School), Clyde Miller (Monocacy Middle School), Dylan Parker (Ballenger Creek Middle School), Cade Suddith (Windsor Knolls Middle School), Kiwanian Colette Baker. (Unable to attend) Laura Martinez (Carroll Creek Montessori School).

These Brunswick MS teachers would encourage Rowan Williams on a daily basis to do his best "Again and Again"!

"Courtesy Week" is being observed by the local Kiwanis Club this week, and courtesy was the subject discussed at the weekly luncheon held at the Francis Scott Key Hotel Tuesday. David C. Winebrenner was the speaker. He emphasized the value of this virtue in human affairs. The general plan of Courtesy Week calls for the practice of courtesy in the homes, stores, offices, public conveyances and other places where persons meet.

Did You Know?

I recently learned that our own Dr. Art Anderson is an accomplished artist? His drawings of the human anatomy are especially impressive.
