A Note from Shiara

Shiara Jackson

Family Advocate

You might recall Shiara Jackson from Advocates for Homeless Families who spoke to the club last month. She recently send us the following note.

Let me first start off by saying that it was both a pleasure and an honor to present before you and your fellow members of the Frederick Kiwanis Club today. I enjoyed myself way too much for it to be considered work. I honestly could've sat and talked with you guys for hours. I've attached a copy of my business card, as well as a flyer for our upcoming annual golf tournament. Please feel free to pass my contact information to everyone and advise them to PLEASE feel free to contact me for ANYTHING! Even if myself or our organization cannot be of immediate assistance, I will do whatever I can to help. I look forward to working together with you all moving forward in an effort to coordinate our services together for the greater good of our community. Thank you so much again."

Phoenix Foundation

Joyce King, the Board President of the Phoenix Foundation, which is an organization our club supports, recently addressed the club about Phoenix Foundation.

The mission of the Phoenix Foundation is to provide a state recognized recovery high school that meets the individual educational needs of adolescents recovering from substance use disorder, through the Phoenix Recovery Academy in Frederick.

Joyce is also Chief Counsel at the Frederick County State's Attorney's Office.

What is an APG?
An APG is an after-school program for teens that offers a chance to connect with peers in a safe, substance-free, and recovery-focused environment. Peer mentors provide recovery support services and healthy life skills.

Program Activities

- Fun activities such as yoga, bowling, hiking, music, art, and more...
- Academic Support (tutoring, resume writing, college/career support)
- Family Potlucks and social gatherings
- Community Service

BENEFITS

- Free to all teens
- A safe and sober environment
- After school and weekend activities
- Recovery-oriented activities
- Ability to meet others
- Sense of community
- Family programming

Club Picnic Features Appraisers, Stuff the Bus

(Below) Our club's annual picnic was held on Aug 1. The event featured appraisers Lisa and Tom Cantwell from Sabillasville (center being introduced by ray Ediger) who described and valued many treasures brought by club members. Included was a very nice carriage clock, two old telephones, some artifacts dug from a backyard, a crystal beer glass, a Bedouin copper pot, a German wall clock and a Harry Richardson original painting. Thanks to Dr. Ray Ediger for inviting the Cantwells.

The picnic also provided an opportunity for club members to drop off school items (top) being donated to the United Way's Stuff the Bus project.

A special thanks to Lauri and Richard Cutting for organizing and setting up for this event including Suff the Bus!

Ashley's New Business

Club member Ashley VaCleaf, Esq., recently gave a great talk about her new business, the Parent Resource Center.

The Center provides training for parents relating to children with special needs, and connections to helpful resources in the community.

Troop 792 Eagle Court of Honor

Recently I was privileged to attend Troop 792's Eagle Scout Court of Honor at the Morningside Inn in Frederick. (I well-remember my own Eagle Court of Honor when I was 14 and living in Alaska.) The Kiwanis Club of Frederick is the Chartered Organization (CO) for Troop 792 and I am the CO Representative (COR).

It takes years of hard work, service, and determination to become an Eagle Scout, making it a prestigious milestone that is recognized worldwide. Prominent service personnel, astronauts, United States senators, and others count the Eagle Scout rank among their achievements.
