Plaque Dedication

A plaque dedicated to Frederick Hospital founder Emma Josephine Smith was dedicated by the Kiwanis Club of Frederick on August 21, 2024 at Ms. Smith's 1910 home at 18 W. Third St. in Frederick. Born in Frederick County in 1844, she died in this home in 1916.

Struck with paralysis in the 1880s, she spent many years in an out-of-town hospital in Baltimore. This life changing experience was the genesis of her passion and drive to have a hospital built in Frederick.

In the late 1890s she formed the Frederick City Hospital Assoc. Soon she had purchased seven lots on Park Ave. which she subsequently donated to Frederick City Hospital Assoc. for the building of the Frederick City Hospital, the corner stone of which was completed and dedicated on May 1, 1902.

20 Years Ago

Aug. 15, 2004

Forty- nine years ago, Ernie Nasher served the most ethnic food in Frederick. A total of 48 restaurants were listed in the Frederick phone book at that time, but The Pizza Shop was the only one that was not a diner, burger shack or steakhouse. The Pizza Shop, which seated about 30 people, moved to West Patrick Street in 1964 and settled into its final spot on Rosemont Avenue three years later. They renamed it Ernie’s Italian Kitchen and could seat more than 300 people.
